

REJUVENATING THROUGH GARDENING: AN EXPLORATION WITH ARRANGEMENTS

MAY 1, 2021 @ 10:00 AM

Join Delresa White, Master Gardener, in a live session to explore rejuvenation through gardening and flower arranging!

No matter what the ability level or any space restrictions, there's always a way to experience the joys of planting indoors or outdoors, watching new growth emerge, and harvesting. Renew, rejuvenate and learn new skills with her!

Delresa White, is a graduate of Norfolk State University with a B.S. degree in kinesiology and a strong background with different mediums, such as paint, paper, and florals.
